VIEWPOINT

Dedication

We the class of 1954 hereby dedicate this book to the MEMORY of College View High School . . . to the teachers, pupils, organizations, and athletic teams, past and present, who have left their impressions on our hearts and minds.

1954 Viewpoint

Foreword

To record our everyday school life and our many activities has been the aim of the Viewpoint Staff.

Here open to all are the doors of College View High School. Enter and observe the memories the class of 1954 will always cherish.

National Honor Society is a national organization of honor students in secondary schools. Not more than fifteen per cent of the graduating class may become members. Five per cent of these are chosen in their junior year; the remaining ten per cent, in their senior year. To be eligible, the student must rank in the upper third of his class scholastically. He is then rated on leadership, character, and service by the faculty. To be elected to the National Honor Society is the highest honor that can be accorded to a high school student.

Of the present members, Roger Humann and Kenneth Snider were elected in their junior year. This spring, Carol Green, Kay Larimer, James Edwards, and Clinton Webb became members from the senior class. Lou Ann Rogers was the only junior receiving this honor.

This year, the National Honor Society has sponsored the Honors Convocations. Dr. Carl C. Bracey, Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University, addressed the honor students at the fall program. For the mid-year convocation, the honor students themselves participated in a production of famous speeches.

Using a patriotic theme, the students, in full costume, gave excerpts from speeches of George Washington, Daniel Boone, Sam Houston, Abraham Lincoln, Robert E. Lee, William Jennings Bryan, Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and a portrait of youth. The program was also given at Whittier Junior High School.

The program, compiled by Roger Humann and Kenneth Snider, was produced by the combined efforts of the music, speech, history, art, and English departments of the school.

Mrs. Fern Housman acted as sponsor of the group.
